

I oppose this petition because it seeks to use one mode over others to determine technical and operational skill. The use of morse code in this manner does not present a realistic means of determining either. This is an attempt to maintain skill in this mode as a restriction to those attempting to obtain an amateur license. The continued use of morse code in this manner is a detriment to the success of amateur radio.